

AROUND TOWN

THREE SQUARE FASHION SHOW

Held on Thursday, May 5 at the private residence of Diane Bennett, "Fashion for Three Square" celebrated the fifth annual Bag Childhood Hunger campaign sponsored by the Bennett Family Foundation and corporate donors including NV Energy Foundation and Barick Gold Corporation. The event featured delectable bites from Andron Steak & Sea, China Poblano, Segs, Blue Ribbon Sushi Bar & Grill, Artisanal Foods and Wolfgang Puck. Neiman Marcus models walked the poolside runway in Michael Kors Fall 2016 collection with panoramic views of the Las Vegas skyline. The celebration was fully underwritten by Diane Bennett making it possible for 100 percent of all contributions to directly benefit the Bag Childhood Hunger Campaign, raising nearly $2 million to support Three Square Food Bank's childhood nutrition programs.

Julia Murray, Tom and Marilyn Spiega

Beth Barbra and Nina Roman

Nancy Nichols and Irma McDow

Marie and Dr. Matthew Schwartz

Terri Conn, Marisa Palermo, Jacquia Prokopenko and Kellie Cook

Gianna Carbono and Amy Conrad

LAS VEGAS BUSINESS ACADEMY

On April 28, the Las Vegas Business Academy founded in 2011 by Rino Armani, celebrated its fifth anniversary with a dinner at Twist Restaurant inside the Mandarin Oriental. The organization provides UNLV graduate students with financial aid and mentoring resources.

Each year, the LVBA honors community leaders with the Mentorship Award. This year, Salvatore Ferragamo Jr., CEO of Il Borro Resort, Spa and Winery; Scott Conant, celebrity chef; and Frank Bonanno, successful entrepreneur and restaurant owner, were recognized.

Photos by Cashman Photo

Rino Armani and Max Teppiner with graduates and current LVBA scholarship recipients

Rino Armani, Frank Bonanno, Scott Conant, and Salvatore Ferragamo Jr.